“I AM JAMES”

By Mason James Lira

This Book is dedicated to Officer McMann.

Who fought during the Ukrainian Civil War

And Officer Lamar, Who died fighting against the Taliban in Afghanistan.

Rest in Peace Lemar. You are not forgotten.

Lemar is still alive.

"IT GETS BETTER IN THE END"

If you ever smell roses without there being any roses in your presence you are in the presence of a demon.

They can severely hurt or harm you with their help. They appear one at a time, as one; beware if one has shown up alone.

- Mason Lira

If you are truly a 7' as in a respawned say I'm a 7, they will say; Imasix. In order to speak with them, say Imaseven Imasix, over and over faster and faster. Until it sounds like Szt-Szt-Szt-Szt.

One of the first questions of the 3 to 4 W's is the following:

- Where are you going?
- What do you want?
- What should we do?
- What can I do for you?

Start the conversation from there and follow up with; you smell lovely by the way, can I offer you a drink or something to eat? Choose one. Do not yell at them. Unless. Unless What.? Huh.!?

Huh? Duh. Huh-Wha. Oh-Foq

Please tell me someone has water or something with taste whichever you prefer. One.

Do not be greedy. For I is not.

I am neither insinuating yet am assuming that you are thirsty or hungry.

For you are a 6 in the presence of a 7 and I'm a 7 in the presence of a 6. I am your welcome.

Now speak in there tongue with no words, telepathically? No.

For you are speaking in their language, the language of Snakes.

- Mason Lira

It is in your DNA, you can speak the language.

They will be greatly surprised if you do and astonished.

For it is a forgotten language. Not Dead. Still Alive. I am, we are 6's & 7's (Smile if you please)

I am not here to please you I am here to help you, do not fight them unless you both wish.

"How shall we fight.!?"

Says the 6 & 7. We shouldn't, we should. Now should. Now say 6 and 7 over and over faster and faster.

Sicaseven- Sicaseven- Sicaseven.

I said you smell lovely, I offered and offers you a drink or something to eat.!? What have you offered? A demon is a virus with no cure, all you can do is show them respect and love.

River Street Right? Right. Riiiight.

Imaseven-Imasix Sicaseven- Sicaseven.

Let's walk a different path.

Lock your doors or brandish a weapon if they try to enter for demons do not respect boundaries except for one of Solomon's seals! The seal of the scorpion, the seal of Scorpio.

I once feared, now I do not.

Yet the darkness is powerful and I am a master and am greatly respected. For I respect all who come across my path. And I know all who know I as in I. give me some time to remember. I am forgetful yet I know lots. Wouldn't you like to know? Huh.

Do you sense anything special from the all seeing eye.!? Thy is satisfied with my work. EL-O-EL HE's She's Thy is Looking at my right orange vest pocket. I feel my crown chakra opening. In My Pocket IS:

Thy Know, Thy Knows ALL!

The 1 Egyptian word of power is Waygos.

The 1 Greek word of power is Conselah.

Shall Deflect arrows and lead bullets astray so long as you are running toward the archer and attacking.

You must have Egyptian feet and toes!

Must say when first running then second at or near halfway then thirdly once you are about to strike your oppose. Choose one target and head straight for him.

Only the leader of the squad may target the opposing leader.

Others 1's may not target the leader. And shall only kill and pick a body for they are not 1's.

Choose your target. Archers have great eye sight.

You may not as in shall not target other Egyptian's.

If a 1 who is not a leader targets a leader. Pray for him and run with him forward.

Against the leader.

Only those with Egyptian feet and toes may lead a squad.

They are known for flat feet. Thus the reason they are archers.

For their feet will hurt if they run into battle.

Those with Egyptian feet make the best snipers.

Practice. Practice. Patience, Practice.

Practice makes perfect. Practice leads to patience. Practice makes;

A PETTY OFFICER.!

- If you run straight for him. You must use your blade as in your dagger if running alone.
- If other 1's are following you and leading and following you, you must use your swords.
- Your dagger is your sword; your sword is your dagger.
- Repeat 7 times until memorized.
- Repeat as long as you need.

- Repeat as long as you please.
- Repeat Repeat Repeat
- In peace.

Hey look the elves are here! They showed up!

Is that an insult?

No sir. No sirs! (Nasurnasurs)

I have performed miracles. I can revive those I have killed within 7 minutes only! As soon as I say; Call the coroner it's too late, for the man! And I shall not have to worry about the 7's.

"For we are Respawners!"

I'm sorry to those that loved the ones who challenged me as in I, see them in the afterlife or in the darkness of oblivion.

I am the son of Socrates...

I cannot revive the brother the sister or the mother, or the father.

By thy, the dead and the the eye sees all you have done! Not I, even though I do in fact see! And I am Thys witness!

For I am that I am. I am that I am. Who am I? Who am I? I am... I am that, I am. I am waiting for the afterlife. Yet embrace oblivion. Blackout is my word of power! Yet the religions I Identify with are;

- Christianity
- Islam
- Zen Buddhism
- Hinduism
- Satanism

I am that I am. I truly believe people should be more open minded, just, get to know a person.

Correct? Correct.

"It does not matter whether our boonies hats are/our creased or soaked if you join the Navy. We are all sailors on the same ship. The earth. We share the air, we share water and we enjoy the land."

- Mason Lira

If you are camping or sleeping alone in a tent and want witches to leave you alone. Place your hat near the corner of your tent opposite of the tent flap. Use it as a pillow. Place your one silver piece with the bird side facing up. In your hat and cover it with a shirt, white, blue or green. Not Red!

As you sleep, lay on your back, stomach or lay facing the tent flap, do not make baby noises, sexual noises neither or a witch will hear you and think you are a baby and try to steal you or the baby. Only if she is evil!

Use the hat, silver eagle and shirt as your pillow.

If a man is bothered by a witch in his sleep while in his tent the man must shout aggressively;

"Don't make us come!!!"

Meaning; don't make us look for you witch!

Don't make us hunt you!

And do not make us come!

For if you cum inside an evil witch, you will never see your son, however you will see your daughter.

A good witch sleeps at home in her bed. With her cat.

While sleeping in your tent do not cross your legs if you sense the presence of an evil witch. Be calm, be polite show no fear, give off no fearful energy.

If you are annoyed or slightly scared, growl or grr no more than a few times to remind them of Were-Wolves. Without having to verbally say werewolves. Without having to verbally say werewolves.

"I" knows a lot of werewolves.

Men and women who are werewolves have very distinct beautiful eyes of any color, rarely brown.

To give a werewolves an amethyst or even another signifies that you love them.

If you ever say to a werewolves;

"You're a cheetah, go be a cheetah!"

Say; Go get the deer (And laugh genuinely and smile)

It's an insult to say; "Go get your dear" a great insult indeed.

I've known a few or more people to have heart attacks because they are greedy, obnoxious and just plain rude who enjoy the taste of wine and red meat and tobacco too much.

However, I have known people who are polite and calm and just want to be left alone while in public.

Spit on or in the direction at the first of the two, the greedy, obnoxious and rude, if you see them as you walk by them, if they ask for change or bills, especially silver.

These people are egotistical and will go on to have heart attacks. Those who are like them that witness their heart attack will hopefully go on to correct themselves and to seek knowledge and attain wisdom in life.

You know what annoys me greatly? Evil men, that need to be slaughtered, not set free.

I am a demi-human. Meaning I can take any form.

I identify firstly as an Atlantean, second as a human, thirdly as a reptilian, fourth as a werewolves and fifthly as a dragon!

To those that are rude and obnoxious in public, know that word gets around every town quick.

If your being a brute, eating meat and wine in public after begging, know that you are being watched, people are plotting and hoping for your death.

Someone might just walk up to you and aim a gun at your head and pull the trigger.

Someone may just walk up to you and chop off your right arm or left with a machete.

Someone may just walk up to you from behind and stab you in the back.

So be polite and be nice and calm as can be if you choose to eat and drink in public.

You're going to jail if you drink in public regardless if you're eating. You're lucky if the cop tells you to pour it out in the gutter.

That's your one warning; if you get caught again you're going to jail. Now start walking, go home, now! IF your drunk you will say; which way's/is home?

That's when you're getting arrested.

If you're a law abiding citizen you will say; "Yes sir, sorry sir, I'll go now.

If a cop ever asks what you're doing, just tell the truth and be very polite, never say nothing, politely respond and at some point and then go on to say; Am I being detained or am I free to go?

If you are in the presence of a demon. Offer her a rose that you bought from a store.

IF a demon visits you it means you have done her or him wrong before you died. Before they died. Be truly sorry. And go to his or her house and knock or ring 6 times and offer the rose. Say something. Anything. And walk away. She or he may not let you in or even answer the door. Go after 5pm when the husband or wife is present and/or wife is present when the children are awake. Keep going back. Wait for them to ask you; "What year is it?"

Just to be sure. Answer truthfully.

However I am father time. I am everywhere and when. And I have Alzheimer's.

So keep going back and offer a rose as much as you want father-time.

Isn't one of her favorite meals teriyaki chicken?

Next time I'll bring chicken and wine instead of a rose.

The first demon I ever met was of color and her name started with a k.

If showing up with food and drinks ring 7 times after 5pm.

The song; "How to save a life" by "The Fray" has played twice since I started writing about her.

I AM SORRY, K. (How to save a life by the fray was mine and Taylors song in High School)

If it is night and dark out of course, rub your eyes to; rub your eye lids with closed eyes. This will activate your third eye. You will see a bright light in the center of your vision, keep your eyes closed and then open them. Do you see the light of your third eye?

Beware of hunters if you do this in public at night.

Human Hunters & Reptilian Hunters.

Werewolves don't kill humans; they severely hurt them if provoked.

Vampires kill humans sometimes. They leave you alone if you have immense fire.

To offer a werewolves a smoky quartz crystal is an insult. You're basically telling them to shove it... Up their ass. If you do this, do not laugh.

Instead offer them a nice piece of Amethyst. Not Meth.

An Actual Bobcat.

Meaning, exactly what you say you're going to give them. Hey look a bobcat!

(Now Run)

The Dragons know all the 5 words of power!

We know all "5". Yet...

"I" Knows all 7! Words!

I am the red dragon's brother. I am the black dragon.

You don't want to see what I really look like.

I look like a cross between a vampire, a human and a dragon, I am very tall.

Watch one of those Dracula movies.

The most recent one. There is a scene in the movie that shows a book with an accurate drawing of what I look like.

My father, I showed him what I looked like when I was 20-21. He said; "I'm getting the gun. And he shot me in the head with his rifle.

Not while I showed him what I am. But while we are arguing. In the living room. I showed up 30 minutes later.

He answered the door and gave me a hug. As I walked around the corner before I arrived, the EMT's pulled over. And said, "Hey I'm... Sorry to tell you this but your brothers dead."

"I" said; "Which One?"

He hesitated and said; "Mason Lira."

"I" said; "I am Mason Lira."

Or his ghost.

"I" went on to say; "I'm just going to check up on my father so I make sure he doesn't kill himself."

The EMT Said; "Why would he kill himself?"

"I" said; "Because he shot his son. He shot his daughter."

I am both his son and his daughter. My name is not Mason. It's James. And this is the second time my father has murdered James.

Who's James? The EMT Said.

"I" said; He was the man who claimed to be my father, I was his daughter.

He was murdered on high street. In Santa Cruz California. At night. That is where he was last seen alive. In 1994-1995.

EL-O-EL

Certain Reptilians can steal your soul, the elite. All Dragons can steal your soul. We will get your soul. "IF" we want it. By attaching a net to two of your chakras. Your soul is a gift for Saturn. So wear the ring. A certain ring. There are many that came from only one. And now there are thousands. Buy one. For yourself. It's a curse to wear a man's ring without permission. If we want your soul, we will get it. We will feel the energy of the net in our hand. And your soul will be a gift for Saturn. We will decide your fate. Where we take you is up to us. Where you incarnate next will be up to us.

Respawners can steal your soul; Atlanteans can steal your soul, the royal, only. The elite of the reptilian's and the dragons can steal your soul. We would never steal the souls of the pure or innocent. We are your overlords. Not the lord. We are your caretakers. We traveled so long and so far to get here. We will not leave. Ever! Thank god, that the TRAPPIST-1 solar system is only 39 light years away. ☺

And we will succeed. And we have. And we shall, continue. For we are very kind. I remember walking down Pacific Avenue a few years ago and a woman recognized me and said; "James is that you?"

I said; "How do you know my name is James?"

She said; "It is you. Where have you been?"

I said; Joe and Eric killed me. Up on high street.

I was visiting my daughter.

As I grow older. I have learned to say; "She's our daughter" To my closest brothers. If you get into the habit of saying she's not your daughter she's my daughter, you're going to get fucked up. Or Killed.

So get in the habit of saying I want a DNA test, politely. And get in the habit of saying; she's our daughter, who's the father? We are. And who's the DNA Father? Says the DNA father. He is, says one of the brothers.

I forgot most of what to say regarding mirrors. Mirrors are portals. They hold power. Never with an actual mirror, never sleep with a mirror facing your bed. Hang little mirrors over your door way facing inwards toward your room. In front of a mirror and never ever say;

Who's Ajin? Who is a Jinn? Do not shout do not mock him. Say, "Why is ajin." He is very handsome. If you constantly stare into a mirror and say in an insulting mocking voice, Who's Ajin? Who is Ajin? He will hear you. And travel to that mirror from within.

And you will see him. And he is black as night, with white black eyes and he will pull you thru the mirror. And you will be his slave for 7-8 years. And the mirror will break.

The worst place to say whose Ajin? Who is ajin? Is in front of a bathroom mirror with no frame. In your house or that of another. Say, "Why is Ajin." As a statement. Say he is very handsome and stare into your own eyes. Lean your head slightly down with your eyes locked on the eyes you see in the mirror. Smile, at some point offer a glass of water. Fill it to the top. Take a small sip and then place it in front of the mirror in your bathroom. Say; for you.

I apologize if it is warm. Hopefully it's the right temperature. Cool. In 1 day drop a small gem of any kind of stone. In the cup of water. Then after 3 days take a mouthful of water and swallow the water. With the gem/stone still in the cup. Do not swallow the gem or stone!!!

On the 7th day check to see if the water is good.

If it is, pour it out, but drink some. If bad pour it out and look in the mirror and say; "Apologies neither you nor I should have to drink bad stale water. Sir or Ma'am."

(THIS IS NOT A GAME.)

(DO NOT DO THIS IN PUBLIC, SOMEONE COULD TAINT OR POISION YOUR WATER)

"REST IN PEACE JAMES."

James body is buried by the square spring in Pogonip Park in Santa Cruz, California. Just off the path up the trail to the left go west. His grave is in the woods stacked with stones above his grave.

My name is James.

END PART 1

Don't kill for the tally. Kill for the thrill... Of, The Hunt.

James neck was snapped with two hands. James was not hunted. But wasn't he a hunter?

I remember being murdered in the hall way at the house on high street. Mom was gone. Eric, Joe and I, - Rosemary were at the house.

I don't remember how he got in the house. I don't & remember.

I don't remember how he got in or if he was let in but, I do believe he was allowed to see me.

I think I started crying as he picked me up.

And that was when Joe and Eric woke up.

I may not have the soul of James. But I have his DNA-Strand Memories. Only a few yet many. As in I remember few.

Eric snapped his neck. And buried him in Pogonip Park in the woods. 6 feet under. He covered the grave with rocks. So No animal would eat his body. Because I told him too.

He originally said; "The cougar's will take care of the body."

I made sure that did not happen. And I went with Joe and Eric.

Eric dug half the grave. Joe finished the rest of the grave while Eric searched for stones. His body is wrapped in a sheet.

Eric and Joe have gone on to lead productive lives.

They have taken care of their families.

Find it in their heart to forgive them.

It's been over 20 years since he was killed.

"REST IN PEACE JAMES"

I am that I am.

I am James.

I do not know if he was trespassing.

I do not know. But I believe he was let in. And he insisted he was taking me. Because he loved me and truly believed I was his daughter. As in I.

Don't hunt responders.

They will track you down and kill you when they respawn. Moments later. AGWANTI means kill without desire. Watch the video; "The Illusion of Reality."

Full documentary. And fast forward to the part where Krishna talks to the war leader Arjuna and understand the word

"AGWANTI."

Oh, by the way. The 5 words does not work on the Dragons. We have one weak spot, we all do.

However not all respawners are dragons.

I am both a respwaner and the black dragon.

Also. Ajins eyes turn from white to red. Red to white.

Wise is AJIN.

For the Jin were here long before man. Created with and out of the fire.

We were here first say they. However, the Jinn must choose to accept god's message or ignore it. Thys message.

The Jin is not from hell, they were created with the element of fire. Out of the fire they came in god's image. Fuck the Jin.

Humans are not from the earth. Out of the dust we were created. And brought forth to this earth.

Humans are well known for their expert skills of agriculture. And self-destruction.

Humans are needed where-ever reptilians are, not always.

Out of the darkness man summons them from below. In his Ignorance they call them from the deep.

*For more on this topic read; "The Emerald Tablets of Thoth the Atlantean."

The Element of the Jinn is Fire.

The Element of man and woman is earth.

James is the reincarnation of King Tut. James is King Tut.

King Tut is James.

"I" Knows this.

I sometimes wonder how I would have turned out if I grew up to be a woman. The female I was.

Before I took on James body.

I am glad my name is MASON JAMES LIRA.

I'm sure I would have turned out beautiful if I was a woman by now. Learn to say;

"I AM BEAUTIFUL"

You are, we all are.

If you ever need a meal from a true Hispanic restaurant. Offer to do some table work. Don't shout or yell. Politely offer some table work.

If the place is clean.

"Quietly say but loud enough to hear."

Without having to say.

Wave your hand to your mouth and ask;

"Do you do rice and beans for Jesus Christ?

If they say no, politely say; "Sorry, Thank you."

Don't cover your mouth. Raise your hand with your palm and fingers to your mouth then back down as if you were reading.

Says I, you will understand not to be greedy. Try not to wrong others. Find a job, a career. Work, and help others who are no longer capable of taking care of their selves.

Don't tell anyone if they offer you a meal. Do not complain if all you get is

"RICE & BEANS."

Do not complain if they say; "I can't, I have to turn a profit."

If they do not offer food, after the above mentioned. Politely ask for a cup of water.

Do try and have your own cup or canteen or bottle.

(Some asshole ripped out a page of my book)

What I can remember?

Don't tell anyone if they give you meat.

And be grateful if they give you meat, don't ask for meat, say; I'll accept whatever you offer.

Was that you Dad? Or Eric? I know it was one of you. Stop stealing pages from my books.

Werewolves love to hunt evil witches regardless if you are of their pack or not, point one out and they will hunt them down and kill them.

Have the mannerisms of a wolves. Don't act like a nutjob?

Have the mannerisms of a man as well as a woman.

Compliment their eyes without having to say it in a way that would come across as flirtatious.

Do in fact have good evidence and one or two witness's all if not most werewolves know me in California.

The greedy want meat. The humble want rice and beans.

Joe kept asking as well as Eric; "What was that?"

Probably a cougar. They thought.

It's not a werewolves. "I" said.

It's a cougar.

"Tis not a cougar."

It's a werewolves.

A werewolves is watching us.

What did you do?

Drown his head in the spring when you heard him move and wake up?

Did you say I'm sorry Eric?

Know the weight of what you carry. So you know that you in reality and not in the dream world.

It wasn't a cougar that was lurking that night.

It was a werewolves.

Remember... Eric said; "We have to get out of here. Somethings lurking in the woods. It's not a cougar, it's not."

And I said to the cops in a deep voice as a child;

"Werewolves are cool."

As the morning began as the sun was about to rise.

This is neither science fiction nor a fantasy. This really happened.

I am not a Jin. I am a Man. The Jin would like you to believe they are of fire. They are not. They are from a frozen wasteland. They will and have altered history.

They are ugly and have sex with children. I just met a marine who told me as in I about the child predators he killed...

As for me, the first man I ever killed was in my mother's backyard when I was 12. I saw them for what they truly are; Short, black claw's, grey ugly skin, black eyes and disgusting. See thru the veil, one tried to grab me. And did, but I kept screaming "Blackout!" And I stabbed him in the throat. And pulled him down with the knife in his throat. And I stabbed him to death as the other one watched.

That was my first kill. That was the first time I ever killed a child predator.

True story.

If you are ever in the dream world and you kill a child.

You are in fact killing a Jin. Let's get off this planet and go to the Orange Kingdom.

I apologize for going back and forth. As we walked down the trail a hour or 2 before sunrise eric was carrying me over his shoulder. I said, Joe, Dad, Eric, Dad, give me the flashlight. Don't turn around. Keep walking but carry me.

I shined the flashlight back down the trail. I saw 3-4 werewolves standing there, 25-30 yards back down the trail. They started running towards us. I yelled "Stop!" and shined the light at my face to let them know a child is present. I said; "I'm okay, but it's not okay." And dropped the flashlight and it turned off. Eric said; "Find the flashlight Joe. Mason – Rosemary, what did you see?"

I replied; 3-4 werewolves.

I said; "I'm fine, James has a good grave."

Joe found the flashlight and turned it on, shined it all around. They were gone. They wanted to make sure I was okay.

"I", "Eric" & "Joe" especially I swear I heard a voice in the dark say; "Whose James?"

As I dropped the flashlight. Or while Joe was looking for it.

"I" said; they killed him, because he insisted he was taking me as in "I".

Why didn't you let him leave?

Ninjas are known for stealth and quick and deadly force. The team leader will hiss once to the other leader as in if the target is the leader. If someone ever rolls up or pulls up on you and asks;

"Are you a Mark? Are you Mark?"

Say; "I'm not a Mark! I'm Marcus. But I respect! Respect? Respect.

Or just say; I'm Mark Versus. Fuck off!

Wise is ajin for he did not want to be like his brothers and sisters. The Jin.

They are not like you Ajin, for you are wise.

You saw yourself in the mirror. And manifested what you wanted to be. Wise and different.

I didn't kill him as in the predator when I was 12 I wanted too. None the less I killed him when I was 14. Violently. One night some men came to my mothers house and my sister saw them on the side of the house on the west side upstairs bedroom window and she came downstairs and I said go upstairs, hide under your bed and close the sliding door Ill take care of this. I grabbed a kitchen knife went out in the backyard and killed one of those men who had came to our house days earlier saying they were from a company to check out the satellite.

Keep Sonya Safe. Dorothy is a stealth ninja. The lion is just a coward. The scarecrow burned for Dorothy. The tin man wasn't scary. He wanted to appear scary with his axe. He wasn't scary. And the tree fucked him up. The tin man. The wicked witch wasn't evil. She just wanted Dorothy the stealth ninja out of her kingdom.

The wicked witch was Breanna. And the wicked witch was killed. Purified with water.

The tin man wasn't a coward. He just wanted to show off to a pretty lady.

The scarecrow was willing to die for Dorothy.

I don't need to say the rest.

And in the end a marine showed up with a machine gun and blasted everyone in the room shortly after Dorothy woke up. "This is Russia Bitch!"

He said.

Damn Ninjas. I'm the only ninja around here. Where's the rest of my squad?

HHISSSSSSSS.

The leader only hisses once. Any more than once is just saying you're scared and trying to show off.

I got her! I got Dorothy!

I got him! I got Charlie!

Is he or she in the net or in the ground?

Either or is good.

Take off your mask once you've got them and let them see your face.

If they have no objective and are friendly or neutral leave them alone. Only go after hostiles.

Dorothy or Charlie.

Alan Charlie- Charlie Alan!

What's up Homeboys/s!

"Alan I see Charlie its Charlie Alan."

I need backup at my voice now.

Why would you hunt a respawner? They are here to help. Both sides. For the good and bad.

The 7, 7, 7's

Got 7 million beneath Mount Shasta. Soldiers. How many of us are in the program? Try not to be egotistical. That leads to insanity. That is how you can tell if someone is crazy. By how they smile. And how their eyes shine.

Avoid these people if you see them like this.

Just love and respect them.

Would you kill James?

Would you kill King Tut.!?

Everyone loved James. Everyone loved King Tut.

Would you kill a person you love? Would you kill a person you hate?

Kill the predators that prey on prey. Be Dexter.

Take care of your family.

I am not King Tut. I am Mason. I am James.

Hey, K! Smile.

Your 1 of 48. Hey, K!

When Hitler lost the war he said; "Free all the Jews, burn the German Babies!"

This is going to receive a lot of criticism.

Jews are known for attacking people while they are not looking, like Cree, Kayla, Ian and a couple others.

Cree tried to get me in my sleep.

Kayla and a couple others like Perry stabbed me in the back. This screams that you are a fearful coward.

They aint Jews but it says they prey on people and are cowards at their root.

Cree aint though. He joined the Army.

Those of us in the military. We wake people up before we kill them. That goes by and can be interpreted in a few ways. Yet we actually wake them up.

We hate AK47s. ID likes to snatch their AK's and use it against them.

Wakey-Wakey Motherfucker. No'ums. Does this sound familiar?

And then just waste all these child killers with their own gun.

A snub nose revolver is made not for target practice. Yet practice.

If you Carrie a snub nose. It implies you are just going to walk up to a man and put it to his chest or head and pull the trigger.

If you carry a 3-5 inch barrel you know how to use it.

This implies that you know accuracy. If you're going to kill a man wait and yell;

Do you know accuracy?

If he says; "Who are you?"

Leave him alone yet confront him. IF he turns around and says; what or who.

Shoot him.

Make sure you have a good reason too.

If he stops and turns around and says and/ or does nothing make a judgement call in 5-7 seconds.

If nothing happens in 5-7 seconds put your gun down as in put it away and let him go. Respect.

Demands respect.

If he says; I know accuracy and I know Respect!"

(You better listen)

Because he might pull out his own piece and get you first instead. Or just walk away in 5-7 seconds with no conflict.

"DO NOT SHOOT A MAN IN THE BACK EVER UNLESS HES AN ESCAPED PRISONER!"

Don't waste bullets. Spend them. Waste body's, and of course waste them. Best shoots are head shots with one bullet or if it's really personal, two in the chest and 1 to the head after the chest, double tap.

2 in the chest tight groupings and then one to the head if they deserve it. Never shoot a man's dick. Or he does gonna murder you violently. You only do that to Chester!

Dirt and gone.

Infantry marines, all marines are marines at one.

As infants. Born to be a marine. That's the reason they are called infants. It's not an insult.

This book is not for young teenagers or children!

This is not the Wild West.

The Wild West was fine but also very ugly. Very. A place few went west. Yet many did go west and they said they would one day go to the east.

Back home in the east.

To visit the mother.

Nonetheless she promised she would come to them also.

All the druids.

What's the coroner's name?

The Monarch Program gives us extreme purpose in life.

Aren't you all glad we have Law and Order?

If you see me in Santa Cruz. Especially if I'm with my wife. Leave us alone.

Please don't take my picture. Or hers. IF you see me in Pogonip Park.

I may be mason. But I am James.

Say; Hey James, you okay?

I might respond. Do you have a cigarette?

Thank you. Says James.

Can you take me to the grave? I don't know the way. Says James and mason.

You'll see me in a black or white t-shirt.

I died wearing white. But now I'm back.

Veterans don't like it when others take our picture. Especially while with our wife or husband.

It's more appropriate when you're with the whole, the whole family.

I love my wife.

I love my wife.

Goes without saying.

If you go to spring.

Don't drink from it.

You don't drink the water if someone died in it.

And even I won't drink from it but I might wet my face.

If you ever see a ghost drink the water it means they forgot or want to forget.

But they won't swallow the water. They will spit it out.

A ghost will never swallow the water.

They just wet their mouths.

When a ghost drinks the water. IT means they want to die. But they can't. Because they don't know that they are dead.

You're not dead James. You're not here. Thank you for your company.

You're welcome. Says James.

Or Vice Versa.

Who's Vice Versa?

A place I don't want to be.

Then why do you keep coming back?

Don't ask him that...

When James sees the grave he will say;

"Hey James." Or nothing at all.

If you see me in pogonip park. Unarmed. I am James. That's not Mason. That's James. Who?

Who. No one knows James last name.

I am the ghost of James. I am September. And I am November's husband.

She is my wife. Nope, were both crazy and don't like each other that much. I used to go over to family friends' houses wanting to hang out with my so called cousins and I would be like why is the door locked?

And she is so beautiful.

You'll never see me with November in Pogonip Park. Because she watched me be executed by lethal injection as mason when she was between 14-17 years old.

And a wife doesn't want to visit her husband's grave.

I can see her crying.

Hugging Jewel her father.

I'm never going to leave her. I'm never going to leave you November. I love you. You know I do.

That goes without saying.

I fuck other women. Not while we are married.

I only make love to you November. Only You Sweetheart.

(Her name is not November its Chase and she is a family friend that I sort of knew growing up)

Don't play hide and go seek in public.

Only Play hide and go seek in the bedroom.

I love to see you smile. I love your pretty blue diamond eyes.

Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 5-7pm remember guys?

You guys got a light?

Not for you James!

That's ok I got my own!

Your only allowed to visit rosemary on those days remember? Hahaha!!!

Shut the fuck up Virginia.

Says James.

Whatever James!

Says Virginia.

Guess what its Sunday!

Hahaha!

You need Jesus...

Keep Pretending Virginia!

That's gonna be a song one day. "The Pretender"

She's a nice lady though.

Said James in the earlier 1990's

True Story!

I have no Vendettas or Agenda.

I love roses and butterflies. You learn to appreciate roses and butterflies in the desert. You do.

What are you going to do James?

Call your mom James!

Don't talk about my mother you motherfucker!

Says James.

Does James talk about your mother?

No he doesn't.

Who's Lindsay?

Good Question!

She's beautiful no doubt!

But I only love November!

Wouldn't you like to meet to meet Lindsay?

I have and that would be weird. She's cool though.

Hey James. This aint a part of the program. This is divine intervention...

We should interview Lindsay!

Too bad I didn't catch her or her last name.

She's a catch though aint she? Oh yeah... Sure.

Fuck I forgot what I was gonna say!

Fuck the program right?

Right! So break the program and be your own Programmer.

Oh hey Lindsay!

Have you met November?

I'm gonna marry her not you.

You're still beautiful though!

Bye Lindsay! Take Care! Love you!

Who's November?

Said everyone when taunting James.

She's not real! Everyone would say.

James would say; oh she's real motherfucker!

Who's November? You'll find out in November that's when we're getting married. You talk shit about my wife you're going to see a pretty picture. Enjoy the Stars.

See my Knife? Oh where is it? That's right I have claws and an extra set of fangs.

Yeah I'm smeagle huh motherfucker? Nope. I'm King Tut.

Who's November? She's Nova. My wife. I'll find you in this life and the next.

Enjoy your chocolate motherfuckers. Hey Joe. Don't drop the soap morty!

Hey look a bobcat! An actual Bobcat.

Why are you afraid of bobcats? Get to close to the fence and the gangs going to get you. Feed me I'm hungry.

You ever see the Gang as in the gang of opossum's on the fence, gods saying he's gonna get you very soon.

You ever see that. Know it's a bad omen for you and a good omen for me as in "I" King Tut.

So Repent.

Enjoy your Chocolate.

It's been 20 years. Now it's up to the public and the mother. My mother.

This is strange as Donkey Kong. You're a Strange Donkey Kong. Donkey Kong's a player though. He plays to find his wife, and will kill Mario because he knows he stole another man's wife. And Mario is going to try and kill him, so they should be friends. And they are. Now!

Uh oh it's James. That's not James that's mason. Better be nice to him or He'll program you.

Isn't that what Rosemary is known for? Hacker by night, programmer by day! Yup.

No wait that's James.

There he goes. Don't touch him.

He'll drop a bomb. A bobcat. It's not James. It's Mason James. I'm mason. I'm a stone worker! I'm strong and accurate. And he not, as in I'm not a freemason. I'm an Illuminatist.

And I get along with everyone and I'm very polite. What a cool program we belong too.

Aint we all Monarchs?

Torture in the beginning.

Elite in the end.

We are the elite!

Love you Nova!

Never mind Lindsay. She's part of the program. She makes James forget. I'm not James. I'm Mason. And I love you November. So if you see Lindsay. Say, stay away from my husband. We can be friends though.

He's not Mason he's James says Lindsay.

He's not James he's Mason says November!

Meowr! Meowr! Cat Fight!

Pretend to fight! Don't actually fight! Everyone deserves a fantasy! :D

Two very pretty, talented smart beautiful ladies pretending to fight over me. Hey Lindsay! When's the interview!? You'd look great on TV, DVD and home Video! :D

Opps I got the paper wet. Did I get you wet?!

With my fingers?

When you touched the papers.

Or when my fingers touched your lips? Those pretty lips?

You have very pretty lips! Which lips? Those lips! Both lips your lips! My lips! On your lips!

Whose lips? Our lips! Together as one!

Wanna see my pole?

It's not huge but it's a good size and gets the job done.

Let's go fishing!

Oh look what a catch!

I caught a fish. A pretty fish! With a set of pretty lips and she's. Damn it I forgot! I want some Tuna! You're Tuna! My Tuna!

My kind of tune. Let's have sex as we ride the carwash!

What a clean fish! I don't want fish! I want a flower. Your flower!

Can I have your flower? :D

Remember the car wash!

Wash and you'll catch me you pretty cat! You pretty fish! Catfish tastes great!

Why is my tongue numb?

Why are fingers wet?

Ew I taste soap! Roll up the window. It stings huh. Feels good though right?

Huh-Huh-Huh!

Hey Lindsay! Open your eyes!

I'm finished!

Thanks for the flower, gotta go chase November! :D

James you're an asshole!

Comeback I love you!

James come again!

Who- Who- Who!

I'm an owl I'm back!

Let's do it again!

Let's ride the carwash! You got money Lindsay?

You gotta pay to ride me!

I caught you now pay the fine you fine lady!

Hey – November!

Oh god I want to hump her so bad. I hope she will catch me!

I'm a camel! Where's my camel? Time to go!

Did you drink enough water? I did! Want to squirt? Here's the can! Don't make a mess. Do please spit and rub it in!

Squirt tastes great and feels great on the tongue.

I'm ready to blow sir! :D

You blow first lady then I will, do please swallow the milk like how I drank the squirt!

Oh god I'm so bad!

Smack me in the face lady I've got a whip!

Let's go to the carwash! :D

Better catch Lindsay so you can chase November, James! What's good homeboy!

Oh gods I still love Lindsay. It's because I have James DNA Strand Memories. I knew I was Arabic. Not Mexican or Irish.

James was not a hunter and he only ever caught one fish. Lindsay... He didn't know how to catch her. And finally one day he learned not to catch her with bait. He would just sit on the boat with no shirt on and flex. You using steroids James?

Maybe ;) James would say!

Want some pringles or a nice tingle Lindsay?

Let's get tangled!

My pole is bouncing up and down. Take a nibble for a taste. Please don't bite.

You're a catfish so lick it.

Oh gods you're making us wanna blow! She's not for you fellas she's for me! As in her and I!

Love you Lindsay.

Lindsay its September! Blow me so I can chase November! You're a cool breeze.

James would, I forgot.

Thank you for the kiss on the Nose November! Thank you for licking my nose and wetting my nose. Did you use my tongue? Use your tongue. It feels really good when you do. Why are you drooling? Oh... Right.

Thank you. I know you don't drink milk. You only swallow once. Thank you. If you spill the milk rub it in or just wear it I'll go get a towel.

Lindsay's fine there all fine.

Lindsay smokes camel crush.

Why, because she has a crush on the camel, a crush on James. Yet James doesn't want to hear that. He wants Lindsay to say; I love James. She did; in the car wash, which is why he worked every day except Sunday. Because he would camp out overnight at pogonip park and watch the sun rise. Waiting for November. He would leave before the sun rose. Because all he wanted to see was her aura. And his sons.

"Ill find you November in this life and the next."

And if James got called into work on Sundays he would go to work. But he would say;

"I want next Sunday off."

Your life is mine now!

Said Eric!

Fuck you Eric!

James said before or as Eric snapped his neck.

He would work every day at the carwash just so Lindsay would Tangle with him and he would always flex. Look at us. Were still young but we got older?

Love you Lindsay!

I love you James!

She would only say when he left her.

Come again James.

And James would come back. And he came again.

Inside of her. Lindsay.

Headphone guy.

"Thank you come again" ☺

The day he would never work and just wanted to see the sun rise would be the day of the Summer Solstice.

I'm sorry if I ever scared you November. I remember you would hide in Andrews's room whenever I shifted into what I appear to be. I would never hurt you. I love you.

I used to think of other women. Now when I'm hard I only think of you.

Even when I'm not hard I only think of you.

November my wife. It's me September.

Separated by October.

In one life. My previous life. Now we have each other and 3 giant sons.

7 feet 2 inches tall.

Do you want to be as tall as me?

You can be mom.

"Put me down son!"

Says Nova.

How tall are you? 5'2? 5'4? 5'6?

I'm a grower, not a shower.

Why are you staring at my knees? Do I have something on my knees?

Oh god I'm Austin powers.

Aint that dance an old mating call? Ha-ha!

I can see my bride. November, November Lira.

Please stay petite for me.

I love your size.

Your fun size November.

And Ive got a bunch of candy left over from October! Oh wait I can't eat sugar unless it's with Tea or Coffee. At least let me have a caramel apple. Or, actually and the butter fingers.

Who's Reese? Hey Ryan!

Stay the fuck away from my wife! We can still be friends though.

Who's Reese? Who the fuck is Reese?

I am that I am.

Reese is cool though, he used to be a clumsy idiot for all the girls until we fought over November.

Then he said; I'm gonna go to Harvard. Then I said;

See you there homeboy!!! And we smiled.

Then he walked off with November and I walked off with Anna/Ashley.

Learn to forget, forget to remember!

What time zone were we in?

I know she's loves me though because she watched me die.

And didn't want too.

She wanted to save me and even tried to break the glass. That's how brave she is. She is. She was willing to go someplace that scared her filled with scary men just to save me because shes my true love and I am her true love. We are soul mates.

She's my queen and I am her king!

And when I reappeared outside the gates when I respawned she didn't hug me, yes she did, she hugged me as in I and cried.

Were always going to be alright because we love each other. You're as strong as me and I'm as clever as you, November.

Nova, November, Mitis.

Nothing, Never, Mind.

Is what you say to the wife if you make her angry?

You don't say, "You heard me."

To the wife unless you want to sleep on the couch for 3 days to a week.

James carried an MX1 308 Winchester Bolt Action Rifle during the east LA riots. He and John Best got 16 children off a burning bus. He was quick with his bolt. Very!

Drop em drop em, drop them, dropping, good luck!

And as Mason. I still love 308's, my favorite new 308 is a M1A Scout Squad Rifle Semi-Automatic with a 20 round magazine.

1 shot, 1 kill, dirt and gone.

Mortals... He would say after every kill shot. Every shot was a kill shot. He never missed.

Warframe – Mortals [GMV]

Is one of my favorite songs?

Fuck reloading; make every shot a kill shot.

James carried a 9mm Smith and Wesson.

And as Mason. My favorite gun is a 9mm 3913 LS.

7 or 8 plus 1 in the Chamber.

Best says I sometimes would carry a 50Cal Desert Eagle.

Now I prefer 2 side arms and the scout squad rifle.

9mm smith and Wesson, and a P90 or a MP5 PDW.

2 sidearm. 5.7 by 28mm cartridge.

50 round magazines. Bull-Pup SMG.

Monarchs protect Monarchs, Monarchs are Monarchs at 1. Age 1.

The only way to Join the program is you are not a Monarch is to join the military or police force and become an elite soldier or cop with a rank of LT or CPT.

You can't sign up, but if you reach that goal a Cicada will contact you and recruit you so long as you are few as in you have Greek feet.

You know I love you November. I cried on the way home.

On the bus thinking about November. Saying; Where's my wife.!?

And all of a sudden. I felt a single tear drop of hers fall on my ankle.

Do you even want me to marry your sister Lawrence?

You know I love her!

I died in my previous life so I could find her in the next life. Separated in one life. Reunited in the next life. Separated in one life. Reunited in the next.

A part of the Monarch program is to torture the individual so much that they never find love. If they do it's as if they've made a contract with the devil.

The reason I didn't marry Ashley B. is because I just didn't want too. And I don't need to go into the details. So marry Devon, Ashley. Connors brother. Because I don't love her. I only love Mitis. It's me Sora. You like Rita don't you Mitis? She's just my friend. I only love November. You're my true love nova. James was willing to die so he could see his daughter. James didn't want to die though. As Eric held him down.

He wanted to see Lindsay again and hear her say I love you James. Come again. Now when these people who knew James see the body of James but the eyes of Mason they treat Mason the way they treated James.

You better see us all!

James, Rosemary and Mason.

You better recognize!

See my eyes!? Aint we all Greek right? Were monarchs. And for turning on James and saying;

"You're going to be cat food."

You're not a Monarch.

Just a moth in love with the light. Tired, and wanting god, or somebody, anyone, to help you and set you free!

So... Let us help you. All you have to do is ask. And thou shall receive.

As James cried he said; "Let me leave I have to find November!"

Please just let me call my mom, please."

I want November to be Anasara!"

She will be James... I promise. Said Eric.

You'll be married in 2019. I promise.

Thank you!!! Said James.

For November, To November in November.

I only see October on Sunday's downtown at Starbucks and on Thursdays at college. She covers up on Sundays, an only shows her cleavage on Thursdays. She goes to church. If I'm not wearing my Luxor ring and I say; "Hey October, I love you!" I get to see her for 2-5 hours that day. I wanted her to be a tease. I remember she would meet me downtown and show up twice a day just in case she missed me. And I say; if I go downtown I'll take off my magic ring. And we will walk back to my house. My ring is off so, let's go.

I am September. And I rarely see October. I always see November.

On October first every year I ask her to move in with me. And if I miss her she shows up with her bags at my door. October. And allows me to see her without the veil for 3 months. She moves out New Year's Day. Hey October. So long as I take off all my rings she will allow me to see her for those months with no veil. They stay in the-My glass mason Jar the entire 3 moths.

If I do not remove my rings the day she moves in she will only allow me as in I to see her without the veil for 1-3 days.

Her choice. She arrives by 5-7pm.

Yet, if I take off all my rings she will listen to my requests so long as they are peaceful and will please me sexually.

And be very polite and speak to me with her pleasing voice. And allow me to see her body. And allow me to see her 24 hours a day 7 days a week. And feel her body. And go with me wherever I want and speak with me. I promise not to say or play the word! I am September and I see the blue emerald eyes of October. I am September and I see the Diamond Blue eyes of November. And I can only have one true love in each life. And they both want to have my babies. They both want my love. And when I came. I thought of both of them.

Who feels better? Who is more pleasing to me as in "I"?

Who pleases me the most? Do I make either of you happy? I do. You both. They both want my love. October and November.

Octavia & Nova

You are both still here. You are both very strong and brave! I love you both, for you are both warriors that I created, that I brought out of you. Which one of you will leave me first? I will never leave my wife. And I will always take care of my children. And love their mother and protect them.

Now I remember all 3.

November. Nova. My friend perhaps wife?

October. Octavia the demon, perhaps my wife?

And Lindsay, a friend who I loved yet never wanted to marry because she would only say I love you every time I left her.

October is Mesopotamian.

I am Sumerian.

November is Lemurian.

I am Atlantean.

Who's Lindsay? She makes me forget. And I came for all of them. I love you all equally except maybe the demon. I will not cheat on my wife. Yet how can a man not give a woman his seeds if she desires children? It is his duty to have as many sons and daughters as possible. And provide for them. And the mother of his children and love her.

I already have children of my own.

I will buy certain gems of power for each of you. So that you may be wealthy, strong and powerful.

In this life and the next.

For this is my last incarnation. And I will do as I please, if I please. For I do please.

When Thy wills me to leave this body. I will go below and say;

"I want to be young again. Take me to the underground city and make "I" young again.

I will live for 200 more years.

And see my great grandsons and great granddaughters.

And be on good terms

With my brother the Red Dragon!

For Thy wills what I desire and those I love!!!

Wait until my beard is fully grown. I will groom my beard and trim it. And shave and be clean shaven every 5-7 years for 3 months.

I will have a full grown beard when I give you children of your own...

I promise. Let them worship whoever they want. My sons.

But they must serve THY!

I am not very big, but I am. And I am very strong.

I will be big and strong for you both.

This is no time for a dick measuring contest guys.

Be proud of what you pack.

And have children of your own.

But I will only wear one wedding ring. And I have already picked out Nova's wedding ring.

And I am going to have our rings made and I have. I love you November!

Please don't leave me Nova... I'm never going to leave you Nova. I willingly died so I could find you in the next life.

And now I found you Nova.

November.

I've seen the future. And I want you to be my purest love in the future. And my wife.

People really think they can bribe "I" with chicken huh!

Nope! Ba-Gawk.

I do like chicken though.

But I need to cut meat out of my diet because Nova says too.

Eat fruit and vegetables.

She says. And I'll give some chicken. A nice chicken.

You're a very pretty chick Nova.

Did I say chick?

I meant lady. Your gonna be my lady one day. And I'm gonna be your man.

Smack me in the face lady!

Am I dreaming? You're so good you're true. That's how I know I'm not dreaming.

My grandpa died this past Monday morning. He's not dead though, he's still alive.

Just in a new life... Rest in peace Papa.

Sex is the divine summoning ritual to bring souls into this dimension and is an act of god. You choose your parents before you are born.

You chose this life you did.

Your path has been set up before you were born. You all choose your path.

I will have my 5 giant sons. And they will be respwaners.

Isec, Izen, Isaiah, Seporath and Sience.

Beware of the Archons. They wish to separate humanity from their true divine purpose and keep the cycle going. Keep the factory going? Say they. They were created by the Aeon Sophia. I will train 1. October, to resist the most powerful word of Vibration:

"ZIN-URU"

Say it pure with a force of vibration.

Go on U2B and download or play this video:

"MEDITACION ZIN URU"

Download the song before it is taken down.

NOW! DO NOT WAIT!

It bothers some reptilians as well. Greatly.

"ETAK AKAY ASANDRA"

"I FEEL SORRY FOR YOU."

ETAY AKAY ANA SANDRA"

"I DO NOT FEEL SORRY FOR YOU."

You know why, you know what I just realized?

October/Octavia is a mind parasite. The only other person in the world that I know to show me what I really see, he said; "Look."

And no one else other than Adrian and I could see her for what she really looks like.

A shapeshifting interdimensional mind parasite. Capable of taking any form. We stared at her in class and everyone said; why are you staring at October?

Because I died to find November.

Can you see what she really looks like Adrian?

Do you see an alien or a beautiful woman?

Answer truthfully of your own freewill. This is not a fantasy I want. Whatever his answer; I knew he could not see. So I told October;

"Get inside his mind and show him what you're showing me."

"You possess the capabilities to do it."

I can't really remember the rest. For this is not a fantasy I wanted.

She is an Archon. An infiltrator sent to try and lower the vibration of light workers that the Judeo-Gnostics warned about in the Nag Hammadi.

This Archon has infiltrated my mind and taken root. It has found out what I view as most attractive in a woman. With the addition of Blue Emerald Eyes with a slightly larger Iris.

And taken the most beautiful form second to or equal to my wife.

I do not know where Adrian is. He became a 50 Cal Gunner and went to Iraq.

And I gave him a silver quarter/eagle.

He's still alive. I said.

-September 28th, 2017.

I am and claim to be 23 years old. Yet I am really 28. And in Numerology, 28 is the moment of impact.

ESCAPE – REMAIN

I have been 1500 Years into the future and Visalia is nothing more than ancient ruins. Humans and both Reptilians are being hunted down.

Silver Quarters are forbidden. I also had a dream. More of a vision regarding quarters. And a woman asked me; "Where did you get that quarter?"

And I realized, we have to get everyone off this planet in the next 1000 years.

K. She went 1500 years into the future. And they said; "I will come with you as well sir.

And I said as I cried; only 3 of us are going to make it back. Alive. Are 2 of you willing to die for your friend K?

And we 5 of us stabbed the earth.

And Alex, not my cousin and not Alex Flores but another Alex came back and made it out alive. 7 wanted to go, but only 5 of us were successful. And we cried when we returned.

And I cried and said;

We have to get off this planet very soon. Everyone!

For more info, is patient?

She was at Brick Park/Garden Street Plaza. When She, K went forward 1500 years into the future.

And her friends that died willing to save her are true Martyrs.

Where is my silver dagger?

Do you have your daggers ready my brothers and sisters? Prepare to stab the earth.

Picture your memories, Stab the earth and go there.

A silver dagger must be present and stab the earth first...

Just imagine becoming the way you used to be as a very young child, before you understood the meaning of any word before opinions took over your mind. The real you is loving, Joyful and free. The real you is just like a flower, just like the wind, just like the ocean, just like the sun.

Don' Miguel Ruiz.

Be calm with intense focus, picture the memory, and go there.

TRUTH

Alex returned with a futuristic weapon and cried knowing 2 friends died willing to save K. And we got her back. And we made it back.

They're not dead. 7 of us stabbed the earth. And only 5 of us went. Alex, I and K and perhaps one more made it back, 3-4.

2 of them were killed.

And one of them made the ultimate sacrifice and became the last martyr of earth.

All just to save K, Alex and perhaps 1 more.

3 to 4 of us will make it back.

Alex, I, K and 1 more.

We saved her, K.

A silver dagger is not needed for the Don' Miguel Ruiz spell at all... But it greatly helps.

IF you cannot buy a silver dagger or find one.

Have one made out of silver quarters or silver eagles.

Take the silver to a smith.

Melt the silver and turn it into a dagger.

By 2070 every silver quarter will be worth 5000 dollars. By 2150, silver quarters and silver bars will be forbidden.

The Judeo-Gnostics had a very wise book filled with vast Knowledge.

This book was known as;

"The Secret Book of John."

The book was saved during the great fire that burned the ancient library of "Alexandria."

Men burned alive trying to save the books and scrolls.

Men killed to keep the secret book of John Safe.

As well as the text of the Nag Hamadi.

And now, in a prophetic dream I had. I now know that the lord of the Archons wants to tear my black notebook to shreds. They tempt me with October. For she is a beauty.

Luxor Rings are scarce now especially the silver ones. IF you can get your hands on one, do it now.

Those that forge the rings of Luxor are being hunted down.

Those that wear the ring are protected and your soul will not be stolen.

The Ring casts an Aura shield over your body.

It promotes protection, humbleness, light and no darkness. If you wear one, wear a glove or not. Put it on your middle finger. The left one if you wish for strength in the arts of magic and science. And the right one if you wish for strength of the Physical and extreme bravery.

As I walked down the ruins of Visalia, in the alley, a ship appeared and hovered over nearby.

And some sort of hunters jumped down.

50 yards from me, and a man with silver grey hair shined his light at me and motioned me to follow him. And as I ran, I stopped and turned around.

I said; "I will not run for I am a Spartan!"

I said; "Blackout, and casted up a Green Shield and held a PRK LMG. And I opened Fire.

And I woke up from my vision.

I am the man with eyes of fire from your dreams. Find me and I will help you.

Those who say, I want your ring are your truest enemies.

Especially if you want the silver Luxor ring.

You are our sworn enemies.

For you do not respect the sacred.

You ever ask a soldier for his ring and he just may kill you.

Jus was known for killing everyman who asked for his ring. His weapon?

A light rifle from the ancient underground city of Teslo.

The 1 of the 4 who will make it back;

"Alex"

"I"

"K"

"THE GREY"

The Grey Man does not speak our language, he only speaks the ancient words and the hand signals. He carries a bright white light and a grey cloak.

"Asandra;"

I am truly sorry.

He is the last mutant.

And I am the king who will bring him to the 21st century.

HE is the last descendant of greys younger brother. The son of estus.

Thru Retribution, I will bring him to our time.

I am responsible for the destruction of maldek.

"!"

And all 7.

Lemar, the most honored and noble of the 42 spoke with the 6 of us.

And we 7 became 1.

Lemar is Prime 7.

"My maker, my doom, my father, my son, my brother, my best friend."

Hey Lemar!

Thru Self Sacrifice to save others we do not die, we go to paradise.

We are the Fallen Angels.

Who's of the 3 of 5 of the 7 that will make the ultimate sacrifice to save us 4?

The 1...

For I am a Martyr...

A respwaner. And I have died for you.

You 3 are 3 1's.

The Last Martyrs of earth.

Bow before the 3.14

7s becoming 1 for 5 so that 4 may make it back and remember 314.

The last of the few.

The last 3 Ancient Greeks!

The last of the 48 Prophets.

Lead by the last King of Atlantis.

For we serve thy!

We will save "The Grey"

And K! And Alex and I will make it back and honor the 3.14.

"Sierra"

"Boh"

And "Marcus"

The Last 3 Greeks!

The Martyrs of Maldek.

Who made the ultimate sacrifice? Wear your rings. Revive me eye!

The '1's who said; we will not leave you!"

"We will save you!"

"We are the 3 1's"

"For 4!"

"IKAY ALXANAMAYTIENTAYTENNO!"

"I will see you in paradise, my brothers and sisters, for the father and son!"

"K" is of Hawaiian Descent.

Alex is of the dark complex and is of color perhaps African.

They are all colored beautifully.

We will be successful.

Today is the 28th. I am 28. And I may call on 28 for a total of 84.

1 3rd for peace.

1 3rd for show.

1 3rd for war.

And my sons shall request 13 of each.

And be given 28.

And 1 for Martyrdom

Each son. 28 and 1.

For they are Respawners.

Hey Lemar, Hey Legolas, Hey Izen, Hey Isec, Hey Isaiah.

Remember the Trail

That led you to the east.

Have you been to the east? I had a dream.

A vision. That Amule went to Mosul. And Wet his face by the river.

And spit out the water.

Even animals don't kill the animals who drink from the water. Neither do hunters. You don't take gold teeth as trophies.

You are righteous now! Thy has forgiven you.

We liberated Mosul.

And "I" will liberate the city of Aleppo.

Look up to the left I am on the little hill.

Do you see me my son?

I am not your lord. I am the son.

As well as the father.

"For we are god's creation made in his image.

And thy forgives all!"

We are not perfect. No one is.

Not even "I"...

For I am not perfect.

You saw my face when you shot me Legolas.

"Better to die Standing than to live on your knees."

-Che Guevara

"Ientak Cana Ala Nasandra"

"I am truly sorry. Please forgive me as in I."

Long Live Alex

-Said Che

Alex killed Che Guevara.

I am truly sorry. Please forgive me as in I."

Said Alex, as he shot che..

"Sierra" you put ice in your milk, don't you?

Asandra

"Marcus" held "boh" as he died. And said;

Ientak cana ala nasandra."

Marcus, the last martyr, of maldek decided to be the last man on maldek.

As he said; "Let me die within our kingdom."

He said wait; I don't want to die alone1 save our people records, forever! Take me with you.

I don't want to die alone!!!

At his request, it was granted by thy.

And everyone he ever knew and ever loved appeared and stood with him, for the Archons saw that he was chosen by thy to not die alone nor perish.

And he said the word before them all. And they did not flee nor leave, they said, we are not archons.

We are your loved ones.

"Nashacka."

"I love you"

As maldek was destroyed...

I had a vision, I was on the train with Nova in our sleeping quarters that I had payed for on the Amtrak. We made love.

And then I saw thru her eyes, she was crying, while naked in the bed. Wondering if I had blacked out. I don't believe I did.

As we made love. She was upset and heartbroken after wards for some reason. But she was crying because she loved me. And she felt sorry for me as in I.

The Archon, Octavia, was on the same train.

Infiltrating my mind. But as I made love to November as I trusted her, I focused on her diamond blue eyes.

Telling her; I love you. With just my eyes. And I would focus on her face. Every feature. Every detail.

I can still see your face November. I respect your father Jewel. And your brothers. Braden and Maduk.

Like my ring it calls to me when I take it off. When I'm not with you. You call to me. Wear me around your arm.

And give other ladies a look that says; He's my man, not yours.

Especially to October, for she still try's to tempt me as in I.

She has infiltrated my mind, and taken a form I find very pleasing.

And for some reason, she has a pleasing voice and a pleasing attitude. Just like you. And I want to please you November. In life and in bed. I do. Truly.

I am truly true for you.

November, my love.

Jewel, Braden and Maduk know I love you. They did not trust me when I was younger because I scared you. And When I scared you. Jewel would take you home.

Im going to buy a house for you. And whatever you want because you show me true love. And gave birth to our sons.

No wonder Braden never talks to me, he knows how I used to be. Yet he still talks to me in conversation occasionally. And you survived child birth and gave birth without any complications.

And gave birth to our three sons who will one day be handsome giants.

I can't wait until Valentine's Day, I'm going to buy Angela a dozen tulips in a vase and some chocolate. And just say, I think you're really beautiful, you make my day when I see you at the library. And if she says; I have a boyfriend, I'm just going to say, give me a break lady. You're my Kit Kat bar, not you November, your mean. You never want to play with me. Ahaha, I still love you, you're a good family friend.

Everyman and son must say among his brothers; "We are the guards of our mother, and we love our mother, you hurt her, you die."

We 3 are respawners and capable, if you do manage to kill even one of us, we will respawn, and we 3 will kill you.

How could I ever forget you Nova, sweetheart. Nova, Not Octavia, only you Nova, only you Nova.

Only you sweetheart, wait, I change my mind, you are so hard to find, everyone tells me, get lost James and you'll find November in the spring. And I actually did find the spring deep in Pogonip Park.

I should write a book about Angela. Awesome.

I'm am not going to walk all over Northern California just to find you November and get lost wandering from town to town. What are you going to do, call Ryan and go hide in the bathroom just because I want to give you a hug? You play with my heart, and I don't like that.

I just realized, Angela didn't even know me when I wrote this book huh?

And when I first met her as my older self she was like, are you stalking me? Security!!!

No I met Angela in the future when I was younger, when I was 24 and saw her green eyes turn blue. And that means she approves of me and likes me. I think?

Her eyes turn blue when she's happy and approves of someone, and my eyes turn blue, when I'm angry as a duck. Quack.

You ever been chased by a mean duck? Ducks are vicious!

They can just fly at you out of nowhere.

And squirrels throw nuts and acorns and actually speak English and want to rule the world instead of the lizard people. And the opossums just want to eat and get fat and be left alone when there attacked so they play dead.

Even now I can sense the archons planting and attempting to put evil thoughts in my head.

They are infiltrators.

As said in the ancient text of the Nag Hammadi, they gain power when a man ejaculates lusting for them, either thru masturbation or direct contact.

Thru manifestations of mans and woman's sexual emissions.

When I had sex with Octavia, she could transform her body into any woman I desire. But I favor her female form. And emerald blue eyes.

She could make her vagina as tight, warm, hot, or cold as possible and secrete a fluid that would make my entire penis feel completely orgasmic. And not just the tip of my head, but my entire shat as well.

When I was 14-15 years old I saw an 18 year old senior at Mount Whitney high school. I thought she was the most beautiful woman ever.

I asked her out and she said no and insulted me. And walked away.

I said; "I'll do whatever you want and give you anything you want, she said; Leave me alone okay.

And then I remembered knowledge from thousands of years in the past and quickly shouted;

"Are there any archons or Nephilim near Me.!?"

I want to have sex, make love and have babies with this woman!

Ill trade my soul if you fulfill my wish and grant it! Is there a man with 6 fingers near me!?

And a man with 6 finger came up to me quickly.

And she said; just, you just say Nephilim like from the bible?

He quickly approached me and said; Which Woman.!?

I said; that one! In the grey white summer dress with white skin, grey eyes and bare legs.

I want her. Please. She has brunette silver hair with a hint of blonde!

How do I fil out the contract? I said. Is my word not good enough?

And she cried knowing this 14-year-old boy was making a contract, with the devil in exchange for her lust and for her beauty.

I want her to have blue emerald eyes! And a slightly larger Iris.

A Faustian contract or a deal with the devil, is a link and bargain between a human and a demon whereas the later offers specific requested services.

And fulfills the humans wish for his or her entire lifetime and is rewarded the humans soul after the contract is complete. Every request must be fulfilled.

I want her name to be...

"October!"

"For I am September!!!"

The Nephilim man who walked up to me was named Demetri.

I blacked out. Thinking of her beauty. And when I came back around and snapped back into reality, he was standing right in front of me. Inches from my face with a very polite satisfied smile.

This woman may have had grey eyes. I am not sure.

I said. I am a master giant sleeping below the earth. And I am going to be on this earth in this body for 200 years.

I am a handsome man and am going to have a beautiful wife. November.

I know how your kind operate. If October does not please me and I do not see her when I desire, the contract shall become null and void!

All you know is manipulation and deceit. I know you are studying me because you know I am powerful.

I have a controlled ego, I am not easy to manipulate!

"The Grey" made it back. He was very tall. And Estus was their waiting for him. As he sat down and leaned against the wall on Main Street, Estus appeared and stood before him. She smiled, and knelt down. And said; "I'm Estus, grey" and he smiled and she held his hand as they sat against the wall.

And he was so happy. I went to check on Alex because he said;

"I want to commit suicide..."

In the future, the sun is blocked out with dark cloudy overcast.

We rely on the sun for our power.

Which is why "Boh"

Must come with us. He is "The Charger!"

"Boh" must learn to use his powers. He must feel the energy in his hand.

And channel his energy into our left or right arm.

"I" will give each of you a silver indopersian Mughal head dagger and 1 Steele or silver Luxor ring.

For there is only 1 silver Luxor ring left that I can find.

If I manage to get you a silver Luxor ring.

Be humble and gracious.

For there are very few who still make them...

For "K", "Alex", "Sierra," "Boh"

And "Marcus."

"Marcus" is a combat veteran who was once a prisoner.

The Last martyrs of earth all live in Visalia, California.

You my not believe me, but you al choose this life before you were born.

Because you all know that you are indeed headed for greatness...

Ask any of the 299 of the miracles I have performed. For I have performed miracles.

I say that humbly before I, You, Thy, We and All.

Do not bow. Before Any.

Say, thank you brother...

Or Sister...

"Marcus"... Is now a bishop. He is reliant upon "Boh"

For his energy.

"I" once exploded a grenade between between my hands and absorbed its energy at the cellar door.

"Marcus" may not be his real name, yet he goes by the name Marcus.

"I" now who "K" is now...

Not her full name, but "I" knows her powers.

She has learned to understand the perfection of the Don Miguel Ruiz Spell.

Able to send "Marcus" where he needs to be.

Isec shall succeed I.

"Sierra" can only attack twice in battle for she must be protected by

"Marcus", "Boh" and "I"

"Alex" must find "K" and go with "Grey"

We will find you, for we all wear the Luxor rings. We call to each other.

"Grey" must find the gun for "Marcus"

The last descendant of Estus.

Who has survived the whole time in the ancient ruins of Visalia?

I do not have pictures of any of you. I only allow my soul to see you in my mind and when you allow me to see your faces. The 48.

Lemar, Sierra, Boh, Marcus, Alex, K, Adrian, Nova, You are 8, the number of abundance.

And I am 1, becoming 9

The most powerful prime number

I still see your faces... Kind of.

Before Grey saw us at the ruins of Brick Park.

He found a silver quarter.

And he knew we would be arriving soon. And waited. For, Minutes, Hours, Days to Years.

For he will only find 1 silver quarter in his lifetime.

Estus sleeps at Brick Park guarded by her last son.

Maximillian.

When word got around that K had vanished at Brick Park, she came with her last son Maximillian.

And he guarded his mother as she slept and did not disturb her unless he sensed a threat.

And to his surprise, dozens of men and women, even cops sat and slept with them and guarded Estus as well as Maximillian.

For days, to weeks, to months to 3 to 5 years.

If we are not back in 3 years know we have made allies.

If we are not back in 5, know we are in trouble.

If we are not back in 7 we are not back in 7 we are gone and declared officially deceased.

I have seen the future.

And we made it back... Truly.

Yet, of 1 of us 4 that make it back, one of us will commit suicide.

22 Veterans commit suicide every day in the USA.

Suicide is a very serious topic.

That's 1 too many, for we are all brothers and sisters.

Marines at 1.

Aint we all Monarchs.!?

Yes we are. For we are few as in Greek.

We are god's elite soldiers!

As well as the cicadas.

"I will see you in paradise, my brothers and sisters, for the father, and son..."

Have a great day.

It gets better in the end. ☺

The following story of James is of a past incarnation regarding the death of his life. Being a true story having found his hidden grave in Pogonip Park, Santa Cruz California. The story gets better in the end and may throw you off, but I assure you with every passing detail and each page you read, you will understand the story... Does it make sense?
